

Every generation seems to say they are surrounded by bad news. Political, financial, cultural stories of conflict seem to flood the airwaves. Wouldn't it be nice to hear something positive for a change? Wouldn't it be good to know that there will be no more bad news?

KEY VERSE: "To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!" (Revelation 5:13).

Many have spent countless hours trying to decipher the images in Revelation. In doing so, we can lose the central theme and intent. God is and always will be in control, and in the end, all will be made right. Read through Revelation 19 and 20 and jot down the words or phrases that stand out to you. Why did they catch your eye?

"Jesus Wins" means

I can _____

"Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready; it was granted her to clothe herself with fine linen, bright and pure"— for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints. And the angel said to me, "Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb." And he said to me, "These are the true words of God." (Revelation 19:6-9).

My seat at Jesus' _____ is reserved

God will have the final _____

"And the armies of heaven, arrayed in fine linen, white and pure, were following him on white horses. From his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron. He will tread the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty. On his robe and on his thigh he has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords. (Revelation 19:14-16).

God's _____ is completed

Death is forever conquered

"Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire. (Revelation 20:14-15).

_____ will meet God
