

THE BLESSING BULLETIN

December 17, 2024

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Because I am renting short-term, I do not have a permanent address. If you would like to send something snail mail, please continue to use my mom's address. I have included it in the space below.

If you would like to send a gift for the Blessing, please send it to my mission organization listed below. Be sure to designate that it is for Wendy Hinzman/The Blessing. Thanks so much!

HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Tomorrow morning, I will be heading to West Virginia to celebrate Christmas with my family. It is a trip of approximately 900 miles. I would truly appreciate your prayers for safety on the roads.

My time there will be short but very busy. I will be reorganizing my totes in preparation to store most of my belongings. As you might recall, I returned to the US from France with just 2 suitcases. I have several totes mostly filled with household items that have been purchased over the past few years.

My mom and my aunts will be traveling back with me the day after Christmas. My aunt's truck and my vehicle will be loaded with my remaining belongings. My move-in day at the storage facility is December 28th. Prayers are appreciated for this journey as well.

BLESSING UPDATE

So, why am I renting a storage locker? Good question, these past six weeks have been spent gathering information. There are not really any suitable places to rent currently.

The duplex is still a possibility. However, that will depend once again on the success of a friend's business project. In the meantime, I continue my search for another suitable alternative.

I have rented a condo with a different floor plan for the months of January and February. A family member plans to visit. I have also invited a missionary in transition to stay for a week. This condo has two master suites, so it is much more suitable for guests than my current accommodations.

Please continue to pray for me as I adjust to this new area. I am not only seeking a church family but also friendships in this part of the US. Some days I feel overwhelmed by decisions that must be made as well as the financial needs to launch the Blessing. Thank you for traveling with me on this journey! I wouldn't be able to do any of this without you!

Merry Christmas!! Happy New Year!!
